

Quiz for September 2024

1. What is true?

Saving Money at the Vet – Vaccinations Hour 1

- a. Rabies vaccines in cats were tied to fibrosarcomas, a malignant tumor.
- b. The vaccine guidelines said that vaccines should given every three years.
- c. Immune mediated anemia is due to a reaction against platelets in the bloodstream.
- d. The rabies vaccine is mandatory all over North America.
- e. Most veterinarians recognize and implement the one and done vaccination program.

2. What statement is true?

Become Your Own Vet, Office Hours, Aug 21, 2024 Case Studies of Urine Disorders

- a. Urate crystals are the most common types found in all dog breeds.
- b. If kidney function is compromised, the urine becomes more concentrated.
- c. Cystic endometrial hyperplasia seen during false pregnancy makes the uterus resistant to infection.
- d. Urine specific gravity can be artificially elevated with glucose in the urine.
- e. Blood potassium levels tend to rise in kidney failure.

3. What is true regarding hair in pets?

Become Your Own Vet, Office Hours, June 19, 2024, Everything Hair

- a. The anagen phase is the resting phase of hair growth.
- b. Dermatophytosis is as bacterial infection of the skin.
- c. Color patterns in dogs and cats arise by chance and nothing else.
- d. The people in the Franklin expedition died from mercury poisoning confirmed by hair analysis.
- e. Hair follicles stuck in the telogen phase tends to fall out and cause bald spots.

4. What is true in spinal disease?

Become Your Own Vet – Office Hours – Jan 12, 2024 - IVDD

- a. Fibrocartilagenous emboli (FCE) is caused by trauma to the spinal cord.
- b. We have very good ways to prevent IVDD such as supplements and laser.
- c. The disk is a very hard bone between the vertebrae.
- d. The knuckling test is a good way to check for nerve function in the foot.
- e. Paresis is a full paralysis that has gotten worse.

5. What is true to feed your cat raw food?

Conference #3 – the Holistic Cat – Holistic Shorts – Day 4 – Raw Food Diet Recipe

- a. Cod liver oil is a good oil supplement to add to pet food.
- b. Adding taurine to cat diets is not essential.
- c. Adding bones means you don't need a calcium supplement.
- d. Always start raw feeding by creating a fully balanced recipe for the first day – all cats will eat it.
- e. Food right out of the fridge has a good aroma due to its temperature and most cats like it.

6. What is true in vestibular disease?

Pet First Responder Section 7, Geriatric Vestibular Disease

- a. Tends to affect younger dogs.
- b. You see a nystagmus in the eyes.
- c. It tends to come on slowly over days.
- d. Once they are helped up, affected dogs can walk quite well.
- e. This is caused by a stroke and euthanasia should be considered.

7. What is true in feline immunodeficiency virus?

Live Holistic Windows Cat – April 2024 – Feline Immunodeficiency Virus

- a. It is related to Feline Leukemia Virus.
- b. The vaccine is effective and is currently used to protect cats.
- c. A positive FIV test does not mean the cat will die from FIV.

- d. The vaccine antibodies can be tested separate from the disease antibodies.
 - e. Cats that pick it up die within a year.
8. What is true in incontinence in dogs?
- Live Holistic Windows Dog – March 2024 part 2, Incontinence
- a. Urinary tract infections are the most common reason for incontinence.
 - b. There is a direct relationship between sterilization and incontinence in male dogs.
 - c. Always do an exam and urine test to rule out complicating issues.
 - d. Urine dilution does not trigger incontinence.
 - e. Phenylpropanolamine is a female hormone used for incontinence.