

Quiz for August 2024

1. What is true?

Conference 8, Bonus Webinars – How to Kill a Cat

- a. Tylenol is reliably dangerous in cats and can damage the liver.
- b. ASA is relatively safe with no side effects.
- c. Lilies can trigger an allergic reaction.
- d. The antifreeze propylene glycol is poisonous while ethylene glycol is safe.
- e. Permethrin can be used in cats at the same dose in dogs.

2. What statement is true?

Save Money at the Vet, Day 3 - Toxicities and Minimizing Harm, Detoxing, Hour 1

- a. Raw dog food made of muscle meat will satisfy a cat's requirements.
- b. Advanced glycation end products are created by a fat and fiber reaction.
- c. Herring has more mercury than tuna.
- d. Glyphosate (RoundUp) is found in crops and the worst are legumes.
- e. Slippery elm is toxic at high doses.

3. What ingredient is not in the crockpet diet?

Conference 8, Day 4 Webinars – Michael Daly (Making your own food)

- a. ½ pound of beans (e.g. black beans)
- b. 3 pounds of protein (e.g. pork)
- c. 4 cups seasonal vegetables
- d. 3 cups leafy green vegetables
- e. Chicken fat

4. What is true in panosteitis?

Become Your Own Vet – Office Hours – July 23, 2024

- a. Causes a lameness in one leg that gets worse over time
- b. They often have a fever when the bone inflammation flares up.
- c. Normally seen before 5 months old.
- d. Occurs in large and giant breeds.
- e. Can be treated with prednisone.

5. What is true in cruciate ligament damage?

Become Your Own Vet – Office Hours – July 15, 2024

- a. A small percentage (10%) rupture the ligament in the other knee.
- b. It is a disease predominantly seen in small dogs.
- c. Study showed 75% success with surgery and 66% success with medical therapy.
- d. We can check for early damage by seeing how high they can jump.
- e. Laser and chiropractic do not assist the repair.

6. What is true in these canine diseases?

Become Your Own Vet – Office Hours – May 21, 2024

- a. Hygromas are caused by tumors.
- b. Foxtails can be inhaled, swallowed, and penetrate the skin.
- c. Foxtails are easy to locate and remove.
- d. Transmissible venereal tumors are due to a virus.
- e. Transmissible venereal tumors are treated with antibiotics.

7. What is true in feline stomatitis/gingivitis?

Dental Care Course, Feline Dental Diseases: Feline Stomatitis and Gingivitis

Log in to: <https://newearthvet.customerhub.com/login> to access the course.

- a. Stomatitis is inflammation of the gums.
- b. There are very few medications used to treat this disease.
- c. Gingival hyperplasia is a swelling of the gums.
- d. Steroids are useful and have no side effects.
- e. Gingivitis is inflammation at the back of the palate.

8. What is true in pet dental pathology?

Dental Care Course, Dental Disease: Tartar Accumulation, Caries and Furcations

Log in to: <https://newearthvet.customerhub.com/login> to access the course.

- a. Caries are extremely common in dogs.
- b. A tooth with a carie can be repaired by drilling and filling it.
- c. Tartar causes the gums to recede and a furcation appears.
- d. A grade 1 furcation means you can go all the way through from one side to another with a probe.
- e. Caries at the back of the mouth can be seen easily by just lifting the lip.