

Quiz for November 2024

1. What is true about dog feeding?

Conference 1: Dr. Ruth Roberts - Feeding Real Food in a Crockpot

- a. Every dog does best on the same cooked diet.
- b. Commercial foods are the best ones for treating anxiety.
- c. Wolves and dogs split apart 30 to 40,000 years ago.
- d. Dr. Ruth suggests starting with just meat in the crockpot to introduce dogs to cooked food.
- e. As long as they are cooked, onions are safe for dogs.

2. What statement is true in the directional terms?

BYOV – Anatomy etc. Session 1 - Understanding Terminology Part 1 and Directional Terms

- a. A lump that sticks out in front of the upper teeth is rostral to the teeth.
- b. A cat lying on its side is in ventral recumbency.
- c. The prepuce is cranial to the ribcage.
- d. The dewclaw of the front leg is on the lateral side.
- e. A lump at the base of the tail is on the distal tail.

3. What is true with dog nail trimming?

BYOV – General Exams - How to Trim Dog Nails

- a. The quick runs to the very end of the nail.
- b. If dogs are really scared, do all the nails at once to reduce the discomfort.
- c. If you see a black spot in the nail when you cut, you can recut it once more.
- d. As soon as you can see the quick, don't waste time getting the perfect position; squeeze the cutter while you have the chance.
- e. Always position the cutter so you cut from the bottom of the nail up.

4. What is true with blood chemistries?

BYOV – Diseases – Diagnosis – Blood Tests – Chemistries

- a. Hypoglycemia is primarily a disease of large dogs.
- b. In pancreatitis, amylase usually rises.
- c. In kidney disease, creatinine falls because it is flushed out with the diluted urine.
- d. In eclampsia, calcium levels are too high.
- e. Dogs with low thyroid can't stand excessive heat.

5. What is true with canine parvovirus?

Vaccine Mastery Course – Diseases Dogs – Parvovirus

- a. The first symptom of a parvoviral infection is diarrhea followed by vomiting and a fever.
- b. Parvo is a severe infection because it strips the lining from the intestine.
- c. Antibiotics are used for parvo infection because they kill viruses.
- d. Parvo is transmitted through the air to the next dog.
- e. Older dogs have worse symptoms than puppies.

6. What is true with essential oils?

Conference 4 - Dr. Janet Roark - Essential Oils for Healthy, Happy Pets

- a. All essential oils are dangerous in cats.
- b. You can purchase quality essential oils at the gas station.
- c. Frankincense can be used for arthritis.
- d. Essential oils are ineffective in treating anxiety.
- e. Pharmacognosy is a way to see if an oil is toxic to the patient.

7. What is true with insecticides?

Conference 4 – Holistic Shorts – Day 6 – Deadly Insecticides

- a. The original flea sprays from 40 years ago were quite safe.
- b. The topicals that first came out were more toxic than the sprays.
- c. The newest insecticides – isoxazolines - can cause neurological issues.
- d. Deworm every month for best health.
- e. Studies show that homeopathic preparations reliably kill worms.

8. What is NOT TRUE with homeopathics for shelter animals?

Conference 5 - Andrea Ring, DCH - Dealing with the Unbalanced Animal through Homeopathics (Part 1)

- a. Aconite 200C or 1M potency is used for the mental state of fear/shock/I will die.
- b. Anacardium is used for animals that are attacking other animals or people.
- c. Apis is used for allergic reactions.
- d. Arnica is used for seizures and cuts.
- e. Arsenicum is used for anxiety.